City Seeking Community Input on Old Canal Days at Planning Meeting

Lockport, IL – “Old Canal Days, Our Community Fest – Come Help Shape It’s Future!” The City is seeking community input on Old Canal Days at a Planning Meeting on Wednesday, July 18 at 6 p.m. The public is invited to provide their thoughts and feedback to help the City plan for future years. The City will also provide information about how to participate in Old Canal Days including volunteer opportunities.

The meeting will be held at the Central Square Gymnasium located at the lower level of City Hall, 222 E. 9th Street. All are welcome to attend.

About Old Canal Days

Old Canal Days is a long lasting family tradition in the City of Lockport. The weekend is a celebration of the City’s heritage and history. Hosted in the wonderful historic district, Old Canal Days provides family fun and entertainment including a carnival, craft show, live music, history tours along the I&M Canal, City Cemetery, and Heritage Village. A comprehensive schedule of events is included on the Old Canal Days site and in the City’s newsletter every year.

The City of Lockport is a historic community of just over 25,000 residents, located just 35 miles southwest of Chicago’s Loop. An upcoming community with a historic downtown and trails along the I&M Canal, Lockport is the perfect place to live and do business.
